

‘package’ means a combination of at least two different types of travel services for the purpose of the same trip or holiday, if:

- (a) those services are combined by one trader, including at the request of or in accordance with the selection of the traveller, before a single contract on all services is concluded; or
- (b) irrespective of whether separate contracts are concluded with individual travel service providers, those services are:
 - o (i) purchased from a single point of sale and those services have been selected before the traveller agrees to pay,
 - o (ii) offered, sold or charged at an inclusive or total price,
 - o (iii) advertised or sold under the term ‘package’ or under a similar term,
 - o (iv) combined after the conclusion of a contract by which a trader entitles the traveller to choose among a selection of different types of travel services, or
- (v) purchased from separate traders through linked online booking processes where the traveller's name, payment details and e-mail address are transmitted from the trader with whom the first contract is concluded to another trader or traders and a contract with the latter trader or traders is concluded at the latest 24 hours after the confirmation of the booking of the first travel service.

A combination of travel services where not more than one type of travel service as referred to in point (a), (b) or (c) of point 1 is combined with one or more tourist services as referred to in point (d) of point 1 is not a package if the latter services:

- (a) do not account for a significant proportion of the value of the combination and are not advertised as and do not otherwise represent an essential feature of the combination; or
- (b) are selected and purchased only after the performance of a travel service as referred to in point (a), (b) or
- (c) of point 1 has started;
